Dydyn ni ddim yn dibynnu'n unig ar ein hasedau adnabyddus fel dau eiddo'r Ymddiriedolaeth Genedlaethol (Erddig a Chastell y Waun); mae gennym hefyd lu o berlau cudd fel ardal syfrdanol Dyffryn Ceiriog a chanol tref hanesyddol sy'n cyfuno siopau stryd fawr modern â marchnadoedd traddodiadol a diwydiannau creadigol llewyrchus.

Ychwanegwch at hynny gasgliad o gogyddion gwych yn paratoi gwleddoedd mewn bwytai ledled y Sir, ein micro-fragdai yn creu cwrw crefft bendigedig a'n lletygarwch sydd o'r radd flaenaf, ac fe welwch chi fod yna rywbeth i bawb yma yn Wrecsam.

From the global phenomenon that is our Pontcysyllte Aqueduct & Canal World Heritage Site through to our great events calendar - there is every reason to visit Wrexham County.

We don't just rely on our well known assets such as two National Trust properties (Erddig and Chirk Castle) - we also have tonnes of hidden gems like the breathtaking Ceiriog Valley and a historic town centre that combines modern day High St shopping with traditional markets and a flourishing creative industries scene.

Add into that an array of amazing chefs cooking up a storm in eateries across the County, our micro-breweries creating sensational craft beers, and our first class hospitality - there's something for everyone here in Wrexham.
